- Conduct legal and policy research and analysis on EU/national law related subjects
- Reporting on legal and policy research findings and/or analysis
- Communication with a wide range of high-profile clients

We offer:

- A dynamic and flexible work environment, as part of an international and highly motivated team
- The opportunity to work on projects within a broad spectrum of legal and policy areas, always with a link to EU law and policy
- Opportunity to grow within the company
- A competitive salary

If you are interested, please send your cover letter and CV to info@sparklegalnetwork.eu by Wednesday 8 December 2021, demonstrating how you meet the following essential criteria:

- A passion for and deep understanding of EU law (at least Masters level in Law) and its link to EU policy
- A stage/ internship or other work experience at the EU institutions
- Excellent research and analysis skills
- An enthusiastic, flexible attitude and excellent communication skills
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Fluent English language skills

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted by email.
